Shanghai Pre-college for International Students

Shanghai Pre-college for International Students (SPIS) is established by Shanghai Education Committee. As the education base for international students at the level of pre-college, it is hosted by Shanghai Normal University (SHNU) who is responsible for its teaching and administration.

Backed by the outstanding teaching faculty, academic achievement and other education resources from SHNU, and learning from the model and experience of pre-college education for undergraduate with Chinese Government Scholarship, SPIS formulates curriculum and administration mechanism suitable to pre-college students. The goal is to prepare students to be qualified for undergraduate study at universities in Shanghai through the acquisition of the Chinese language knowledge, related science knowledge and cross-cultural communication abilities.

Introduction

1. Applicant

SPIS is open to those who plan to get enrolled in undergraduate program in universities in Shanghai, but whose Chinese language proficiency, related science knowledge and cross-cultural communication abilities have not yet reached the requirements for undergraduate study.

2. Courses

The duration is one year.

1st semester: intensive Chinese language courses (30 lessons per week)

2nd semester: intensive Chinese courses (24 lessons per week), Chinese culture (2 lessons per week), comprehensive science (2 lessons per week) and comprehensive art courses (2 lessons per week).

3. Teaching faculty

Based on the advantage of the teaching and academic resources of SHNU, SPIS has established an excellent teaching team. All of them are equipped with solid expertise, rich teaching experience and first-rate overall qualifications.

4. Facilities

All classrooms are equipped with air-conditioners, multi-media facilities. And the language lab is equipped with digital audio facilities. In the teaching building there can be found coffee machine, drinking facilities, lounge and etc. Students are accommodated on campus. The dormitory has the access to broadband, public kitchen, laundry room etc. The International Students Activity Center with computers and sports facilities are also at your service.

SPIS Scholarship

Qualified applicants will be provided with SPIS Scholarship, which covers: registration fee, tuition fee, textbooks, accommodation fee, living allowance (RMB1400 per month), comprehensive medical care insurance, HSK test fee etc.

After graduating from SPIS, if passing the annual assessment, students have the priority to be granted four-year scholarship for undergraduate program (the scholarship covers the same fee as defined in Shanghai Government Scholarship Type A or Type B).

Those who have failed to get SPIS Scholarship may also apply to study in SPIS with self-sponsorship. After completing one year study, based on assessment reports, they may also stand a chance to be granted four-year scholarship for Bachelor's Degree (covering the same fee as defined in Shanghai Government Scholarship Type A or Type B).

Application Criteria and Materials:

1. Non-Chinese over 18
2. Physically healthy

Program Cost is RMB9280 (approx AUD$1900) per person for the Language and Culture or the Dragon Boat and Culture training programs at SSPU as indicated.

Due to the weak Australian Dollar, the program cost for the program is much higher than in previous years. Final costing cannot be indicated till program is fully paid in August 2015.

Cost of flights and any travel to and from Shanghai Pudong International Airport, including Travel Insurance is the responsibility of the participant and is not included.

There will be one free pick up and drop off at the beginning and end of the program to Shanghai Pudong International Airport.

Accommodation this year will be based at the Shanghai Taiji Hotel located opposite SSPU.

All participants will have their own room. Breakfast included.

A deposit of $100 AUD will be required by 15 June 2015 to secure a place with either of the programs. Details for a direct deposit to a nominated account will be provided after Expressions Of Interests are received.

A minimum of 10 people will be required per group for the program to proceed.

All deposits will be refunded in view of any programs being cancelled due to a lack of numbers.

Final Payment will be due by 14 Aug. Deposits will not be refunded for any cancellations after 14 Aug

All payments will be calculated at the exchange rate on the day of transfer on the 14 Aug
